

Australia appoints Ticketing and Tour Agent for the 2010 Games to be held in Delhi

Sportsworld Pacific has been appointed by the Australian Commonwealth Games Association as their General Sales Agent for the 2010 Games to be held in New Delhi.

The vibrant city of New Delhi, home to 14 million people will be hosting the Commonwealth Games in 2010. This will be the first time India has hosted the Games and only the 2nd time an Asian country has hosted them. It is anticipated that the Australia will send its largest team to ever compete in an overseas campaign, with more than 425 athletes and 175 officials are expected to be selected.

The 2010 Commonwealth Games are to be held from 3-14 October inclusive of the Opening and Closing Ceremonies. There will be 19 sports on the program for Delhi making it the largest Games to date with an expected 5,000 plus athletes from 70 countries competing.
